Wood Johnson, of Loganville, is still hanging—we presume he is, for a young fellow took out a license, Tuesday, to marry her, and she has probably changed her name ere this. Instead of going to Columbus she went to Lakeview, and instead of giving her body to the corner, she gave herself to a young man to be his dutiful and loving spouse, so long as she shall live.

Caleb Green of Lewistown, who started from Bellefontaine, Saturday night with a man named Means, and got lost on the road, was found Tuesday, at the home of a friend near Northwood. The young ladies with others from Dayton and other points, took part in the program. Mrs. Campbell having arranged for part of it. To relieve the annual monotony of the Home life, the Women's Relief Corps of the State provides a series of entertainments, and each district is called upon to furnish one or more entertainments during the year. A couple were married in the Probate office a day or two ago, and when the preacher came in, they were sitting across the room from each other. The preacher asked them to stand up, and they stood up in their positions, without making any more to get nearer each other. He then asked them to get together when they approached but remained at a respectful distance. He told them to join hands, when they held their hands up as if to take an oath; he then told them how to join hands, and the knot was tied just as neatly as if they had gone through the performance five or six times before, and were as happy as if they had been married in a king's palace.

A Busy Court.
The large number of cases disposed of by Judge Dow at the late term of the Common Pleas Court, calls attention to the fact that the one Judge, in the Sub District of Logan and Union, as shown by the Secretary of State's Report, disposed of more cases in a year, than are disposed of in any other district in the State, with possibly one or two exceptions; yet a number of other subdistricts have two or three Judges.

Buy On the C. L. & N.
A contract has been put on record in the County Recorder's office, by which the C. L. & N. R. R. bargains and sells to the D. & L. N. R. R. the roadbed, right of way, contracts, etc., of the C. L. & N. R. from Columbus to Lima, in consideration of $30,000.

A BELLEFONTAINE BOY.

Seeing the World.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stieg received a letter Tuesday, from their son Gus, written November 28 from Bombay, India. He had been in South Africa, in Madagascar, Ceylon, and other East India islands, and expected to spend Christmas, in Calcutta, India. His route, marked out from that point, includes, Rangoon, Singapore, Australia, Java, the Philippines, Japan, Honolulu, and thence to the United States. This will take about a year. He is traveling with the Jordan family, and has had excellent health, weighing 132 pounds. It will be four years next July since he left Bellefontaine.

Northwood.

Rev. McKnight, of the Theological Seminary at Xenia, preached in the U. P. church here last Sabbath afternoon. Miss Edna Cook, whose illness has been noted in our items, died Friday night. Her funeral was held Monday from the family residence. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Huston, of Belle Centre, assisted by Rev. Hargrave and McKnight. Quite a number of neighbors, relatives and acquaintances were in attendance to show respect and express their sympathy. Also Edna's schoolmates and members of her Sabbath School class attended in a body. The floral tributes were very tasteful and fine. The bereaved parents' hearts are full of sorrow, yet they have comfort in their sorrow because they know in whom they have believed and because He has said, "Let not your heart be troubled." "I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me."

The R. P. Sabbath School gave their annual entertainment on Tuesday evening. The music, recitations, concert exercises and drills were excellent, and were a high compliment not only to the performers themselves, but to those who trained them. The only misce we noticed in all the performance worth mentioning was Robert Reed failed to take a "fill" part in the hoop drill, but the audience heartily recognized the part he did take.

Harry Wroten's moved into their new residence Monday.

G. H. Patterson's will soon again be established on their farm.

A happy New Year to each reader of the good old Republican is the wish of yours truly.

INCENDIARISM

AT SAINT PARIS!

Heavy Loss of Property! A Fine Building and $30,000 Worth of Goods Destroyed

TO SECURE A CHEAP SUIT OF CLOTHES!

The Incendiary Arrested by a Logan County Detective.

Champaign is under lasting obligations to Logan county for helping arrest some of her worst criminals. Only a week or two ago, one of her young criminals, who had been arrested twelve times and acquitted in each case, was convicted in our court and sent to the penitentiary. We have now to chronicle the arrest of another desperate criminal through the shrewd work of a Logan county detective.

Wednesday night of last week, the large store of John Poorman of St. Paris, was set on fire, and the building and a $30,000 stock of goods badly damaged by fire and water.

An opportune discovery of the fire alone prevented the entire destruction of the store and stock of goods, but the loss was very heavy as it was.

The next night the B. & K. with store in the same village was entered by burglars, and a lot of goods including some rings were stolen.

Detectives from Springfield and Urbana went to work on the job, but it remained for a Logan county detective to ferret out the fire-bug, and arrest him.

The Urbana Times gives the credit to a Springfield detective and the Marshal of St. Paris, but its own account shows that Mr. Ira McCrook took the Sheriff to St. Paris and swore out a warrant for Terrell's arrest before the Springfield detective went to St. Paris.

The true story of the arrest is, that Ira McCrook, of DeGraff first suspected Albert Terrell of being the fire bug and thief.

Terrell lived with his aunt, Mrs. Charles Pond, a mile and a half south of Springfield Hills. McCrook went to Pond's Friday morning, and saw Terrell with rings on his fingers, which he supposed he had stolen at Beckwith's.

He asked Terrell where he got them, and Terrell said he bought them. McCrook stayed about till he got a job of chopping from Pond, and after he went to work, soon got Terrell's confidence and Terrell told him of the setting fire to Poorman's store, and the burglarizing of Beckwith's.

He told him that the goods he got at Beckwith's, consisting of rings, harps, etc., were locked in a drawer at Pond's. He said that he set fire to Poorman's store in order to get a suit of clothes and cover up the theft by burning the store and stock of goods.

He piled up boxes against the rear end of the store and set them afire, expecting to steal the goods after the fire got well under way. But some one discovered the fire and raised the alarm before he could secure his suit, and he was baffled.

He joined the crowd at the fire and talked with them about it and wondered what motive a man could have for committing such a deed. The next morning (Thursday), he went to his grandfather's at Westville, and Thursday night went back to St. Paris and burglarized Beckwith's store.

After getting Terrell's confession, McCrook drove to Urbana, notified Sheriff McLean, and they both drove to St. Paris where McCrook swore out a warrant for Terrell's arrest. He then secured a vehicle to go with the Sheriff and arrest Terrell, and went into Pond's house and arrested Terrell when they got there. The Springfield detective and St. Paris Marshal asked permission to go along and were granted permission.

Terrell is about 19 years old. His father committed suicide several years ago, and his mother married a man named Ed. Rose, who murdered her, and is now serving a life term in the penitentiary, and young Terrell said he had become despondent and desperate.

His crimes are of a desperate character and he will doubtless receive a heavy sentence.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, LOGAN COUNTY, BELLEFONTAINE, O., Dec. 28, 1898.

To Arthur A. Thomen, et al.
You are hereby notified that the following petition has been filed with the Auditor and Commissioners of Logan county, Ohio, asking for the removal of a dam on the A. Thomen lands, Monroe township, and that said board has set FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1899, for the hearing upon said petition, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Auditor's Office in Bellefontaine, Ohio.

The undersigned owners of real estate adjoining and adjacent to Mackinack Creek in Monroe township, Logan county, O., present to your honorable board, that there exists across the channel of said stream, on the lands of Arthur A. Thomen, in survey 479, Monroe township, Logan county, Ohio, a mill dam erected for the operation of a mill adjacent thereto which has become useless and has so remained without any attempt to rebuild, or operate the same, for a period of more than 5 years, by reason whereof said mill dam and all water rights and privileges belonging to the same have been and by force of the statute are abandoned.

Your petitioners further represent that the removal of said mill dam is necessary and will be conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare; and that such removal will prevent said creek from overflowing its banks to the damage of the property of your petitioners and others, and is necessary in order to secure the proper and sufficient drainage of their said lands.
